Aether Apocalypse

House Walkthrough

1. The player spawns in here. The area is safe.
2. This is where the player will find their first weapon, a shotgun.
3. This is where the player will get more ammo to prepare them for later enemy engagements.
4. The player will hear zombies outside of the house letting them know that there will be danger ahead.
5. The player activates a button which opens the garage door. Opening the door will allow zombies to come in and attack the player.
